Declaration of Academic Integrity

Plagiarism in University Assessments and the Presentation of Fraudulent or Fabricated Coursework

Plagiarism is defined as presenting someone else's work as your own. Work means any intellectual output, and typically includes text, data, images, sound or performance.

Fraudulent or fabricated coursework is defined as work, particularly reports of laboratory or practical work that is untrue and/or made up, submitted to satisfy the requirements of a University assessment, in whole or in part.

Declaration:

- I have read the University Regulations on Plagiarism^[1] and state that the work covered by this declaration is my own and does not contain any unacknowledged work from other sources.
- I confirm my consent to the University copying and distributing any part or all of my work in any form and using third parties (who may be based outside the EU/EAA) to monitor breaches of regulations, to verify whether my work contains plagiarised material, and for quality assurance purposes.
- I confirm that details of any mitigating circumstances or other matters which might have affected my performance and which I wish to bring to the attention of the examiners, have been submitted to the Student Support Office.
